AAE publishes empirical and non-empirical research in Accounting Education. Volume 24 addresses five key themes: (1) research on student attitudes and behaviour, (2) cases and pedagogical approaches in tax, (3) financial reporting and introductory accounting, (4) research about the CPA exam, and (5) international perspectives.

Accounting practice, whether in business or government, is more dynamic, more complex, and addresses a wider array of issues than it did as little as five years ago. Significant and rapid social, political, technological and economic changes are taking place in the world economy and it is increasingly recognised that accountants in all countries play a key role in the process of economic development. Accounting education is undergoing a thorough review on a worldwide basis and major developments are taking place to produce quality accounting education that can keep pace with dramatic world change. This book provides an up-to-date view of the state of accounting education throughout the world and focusses on the global challenges facing accounting education as we approach the millenium.

Study & Master Accounting Grade 10 has been especially developed by an experienced author team according to the Curriculum and Assessment Policy Statement (CAPS). The comprehensive Learner's Book includes: * case studies which deal with issues related to the real world, and move learners beyond the confines of the classroom * margin notes to assist learners with new concepts - especially GAAP flashes, that give learners guidance on General Accepted Accounting Practice * examples with solutions after the introduction of each new concept. The Teacher's File includes: * a daily teaching plan, divided into the four terms, that guides the teacher on what to teach per day and per week * moderation templates to assist teachers with assessment * solutions to all the activities in the Learner's Book. The CD-Rom with a PowerPoint presentation includes: * interactive examples to explain new concepts * links to all solutions to activities and assessments in the Learner's Book
