our Liturgy proper proportionality of devotion. Do we not risk imbalancing the Liturgy of the Communion Rite by deleting the traditional and individual public act of adoration at Holy Communion (an expression of the first and greatest commandment), while others emphasize the kiss of peace with enthusiastic handshakes and embraces (an expression of the second greatest commandment)?

Eucharistic Piety: A Strong Recommendation | EWTN

Eucharistic Piety: A Strong Recommendation. By Fr. Regis Scanlon, O.F.M., Cap. The doctrine of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist is one of those wonderful truths by which Christianity shines forth as a religion of mysteries far exceeding the capacity of the human mind. The Catholic Church has defined the dogma of the Real Presence by stating that Jesus Christ is present whole and entire under the appearances of bread and wine following the words of consecration at the Eucharist.
