Enneagram personality type 5 is one of the most introverted types. People with type Five personalities need a lot of time alone to "recharge" and process information. Fives are overwhelmed and fascinated by the outside world. On the one hand, they feel that the world's demands and other people's needs and expectations are too intrusive and tiring. But on the other hand, they are also the source of mental stimulation and knowledge.

The 5 Whys method also allows you to follow multiple lanes of inquiry. An example of this is shown in Figure 2, below. In our example, asking "Why was the delivery late?" produces a second answer (Reason 2). Asking "Why?" for that answer reveals a single reason (Reason 1), which you can address with a counter-measure.
